Both. The price shown is for our small-group fixed departures. The same route can be run privately on your own dates for your family or friends — tell us the group size and we send a private quote within a day.

How do I book, and how much is the advance?

Are flights or trains included?

No. The trip starts and ends at the points listed above so you can book the connection that suits you. We are happy to advise which arrival works best with the batch.
